Windywarra sisters top at $4300

A large crowd of keen Dairymen were at the Colac Selling Centre for the herd dispersal of Windywarra Holsteins of Lionel and Carol Clayton. Their mostly appendix herd was backed by 30 years of AI and high production.

Sale top of $4300 was reached twice when the pair of 7 year old ET full sisters Windywarra Goldwyn Paula and Goldwyn Poppy, both with high PI's and from a 13000 litre Hojay dam sold to B, G & J Hand of Larpent.

Next top price of $3800 was paid by Anniedale Holsteins of Allansford for Windywarra Brick Poppy a daughter of Goldwyn Poppy.

Selling agents Dairy Livestock Services report buyers were from all parts of Western Victoria along with NSW.
